Nunavut Law Foundation Board of Directors

Eva Tache-Green ᐸᐸᐸ ᐸᐸᐸᐸᐸᐸ

The Nunavut Law Foundation appointed Eva Tache-Green as Director in September 2020 due to her extensive background in non-profit work, particularly as it relates to strategic planning and fundraising. Eva has practiced criminal defence law for nearly 8 years, most recently as Defence Counsel and Appeals Coordinator for the Legal Services Board of Nunavut. Her interests include law reform and the administration of justice, as evidenced by her work with Innocence Canada on wrongful conviction cases and pro-bono activities with LifeLine Syria under the Refugee Sponsorship Support Program. Before obtaining her J.D. at U of T, Eva piloted a project to provide public legal education to refugees in Cairo, Egypt. Today, Eva is an avid mentor actively involved in supervising students interested in appellate law. The Board looks forward to her continued contributions in community access to meaningful legal education through the Nunavut Law Foundation's scholarship and awards programs.
