

ᓇᓱᓇᕗᒻᒥ የᓇᓱᓇ ሆᓇ ቅᓇ
NUNAVUMI MALIGALIUQTIT
NUNAVUT LAW FOUNDATION
LA FONDATION DU DROIT DU NUNAVUT

Nunavut Law Foundation Board of Directors

Andrea Clarke ᐃᓇᐃᔭᐍᐏᐣ

The Nunavut Law Foundation proudly welcomes newly appointed Director Andrea Clarke, beginning her two-year mandate on October 8, 2025.

Andrea Clarke is a lawyer, deputy mayor of Kincardine, Ontario, and is a social justice advocate. She is currently also a member of the Children's Lawyer Panel in Ontario.

In 2023, Andrea was selected as businessperson of the year by the Kincardine Chamber of Commerce and nominated as Citizen of the Year. In 2024, she was listed in the Top 100 Black Women in Canada to Watch.

As a social justice advocate, Andrea has worked for the Legal Aid Agency in England as an Independent Adjudicator. She along with others sit on the committee which has established Bruce County's Afro Caribbean Youth Awards to provide scholarship funding for young Afro Caribbean individuals looking to enter post secondary education. In addition, Clarke has, in her capacity as deputy mayor, she continues to promote inclusion in Kincardine and push for challenging and controversial conversations in public open forums.

Andrea is cultivating an expertise that merges multiple different subjects to provide a well-rounded service to her clients. Andrea holds a Master of Business Administration, a Bachelor of Laws and a Bachelor of Science.

Her legal acumen is recognized through her calls to the Nunavut, Ontario, New York (Third Appellate Division) and England and Wales Bars. As a seasoned litigator, Andrea made her mark executing cases in criminal defense, child agency and family.

Andrea has shown leadership as a Partner for several years at a UK based firm and currently the principle at Law Offices of Andrea Clarke for the last seven years. Her work reflects a deep commitment to equality, justice, and advocacy.

To learn more about our current Directors and Chairperson, please visit
<https://www.nunavutlawfoundation.ca/law-foundation-board-of-directors/>